Education requires expensive resources such as time and money, which are often hard to find. But those who invest these resources often end up being richer - not only because they often improve their financial situation, but also because their minds are richer too. 8. The highest result of education tolerance - Hellen Keller We said this in our vision too. When you raise people, you swipe the barriers. You help them see what it's like in other situations, cultures and countries. You create a world that is more tolerant of differences and accepts everyone. 9. The great thing about learning is that no one can take it away from you - B. B. King Education is a long-term investment. The time and money that you put in, the courage you have to move through the problems and persevere ... all this will continue to pay for the rest of your life. 10. Education is simply the soul of a society that goes from generation to generation - G.K. Chesterton Education connects you with the stories, theories and achievements of distant cultures and generations. It offers you a quantity of knowledge more than you can ever get on your own in one life. 11. The whole purpose of education is to turn mirrors into windows - Sydney J. Harris before embarking on your higher education journey, all you have your own experience. Education opens a window for the thought of leaders near and far throughout history, and allows us to understand the world in a deeper, more complex way. 12. The function of education is to teach people to think intensively and critically. Intelligence plus character is the goal of true education - Martin Luther King Jr. When you develop critical thinking, you no longer take things for granted. You start asking why things are the way they are. You learn about people who have seen something wrong and have had the courage to do things differently in their personal lives, or to lead the nation to the effects of transformation. Yes, you need courage and perseverance, but when you get an education, you begin to realize that you can make a difference too. 13. When you raise one person, you can change lives, when you bring up many, you can change the world - Shay Reshef Shay Reshef is an educational entrepreneur, founder and president of the University of the People, the world's first non-profit, non-educational, accredited university. He made it his life mission to help open the gates to higher education. Use these education quotes to take the next step to your dream of keeping these education quotes nearby.
